'PLAY ON WORDS'

Special event at coffee morning

SATURDAY, 2nd September, 2023

Once again, we shall be hosting one of our popular monologue/poetry/reading events in the coffee lounge. Anyone is welcome to come along and read some poetry, prose or any other piece of literature. We need your help to make the morning a success, so, come along and share your favourite piece of poetry or prose with us. It might even be something you have written yourself. It does not have to be a lengthy piece, just one that you enjoy. One to three minutes is about normal, and you do not have to learn it by heart as, usually, people read whatever they have chosen.

Everyone is welcome, so, even if you are not a regular at our coffee mornings, please feel free to come along and have a coffee/tea and biscuits with us. The timing is 'flexible' but will probably start around 11.00am. Admission is free. The sale of refreshments helps the EPPiC theatre funds.

Make a note in your diary and come along and read your favourite piece of literature!!
